AMANDA DIVITO PARLE NAMED 'REALTOR OF THE YEAR'
BY THE DENVER METRO ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS

Denver, CO (October 20, 2012) – The Denver Metro Association of REALTORS has named Amanda DiVito Parle as 2012 'REALTOR of the Year' for her outstanding business achievements, REALTOR Association involvement at the local, state and national levels, and civic contributions.

"It was a pleasure to present this award to Amanda," said Jolon Ruch, Immediate Past President of the Denver Metro District for the Colorado Association of REALTORS "She is a great agent, a super servant in this industry and a role model for other real estate professionals."

DiVito Parle is the owner of The DiVito Dream Makers and an agent with RE/MAX Alliance in Arvada. She was named Colorado Young Professional of the Year in 2011 and is the immediate past chairperson and co-founder of the Colorado Young Professionals Network Advisory Board (CYPN). Amanda served two terms as Director for the Jefferson County Association of REALTORS and was appointed to serve on the National Association of REALTORS (NAR) Strategic Planning Committee. DiVito Parle was the 2006-07 President for the Builder-Realty Council of Metropolitan Denver and was selected as one of REALTOR Magazine's 30 Under 30 in 2008. She is among the top three and a half percent of RE/MAX agents internationally. Her designations include: ABR, CRS, CDPE, CLHMS and SRES. .

"This is an unbelievable honor and I am thrilled to have been recognized by my peers in the real estate industry," said DiVito Parle. "This award has traditionally come near the end of the recipients' career and I am humbled to have received this distinguished award at such a young age and only 10 years into my career. I take great pride in accompanying my seasoned veteran peers in earning this award."

The Arvada Young Professional Group Leadership Award 2011

The Arvada Chamber of Commerce recently chartered the AYP group to provide young professionals living or working in Arvada the opportunity to expand their personal networks and build lasting connections within the city's professional and social arenas. The group's primary purpose is to sponsor, promote, educate and support social activities involving young professionals and members of the Arvada business community to nurture the city's future leaders.

On August 7, 2011, Amanda DiVito Parle was presented with the Arvada Young Professional Group Leadership Award. She was selected for this award based on her successful business career, generous volunteer work, numerous awards received and more.

These combined efforts have resulted in her becoming a familiar face with industry peers as well as a knowledgeable community leader as a real estate professional and person as a whole. To her clients and friends, this live-wire is an advisor, counselor and trusted agent.

Amanda believes strongly in the power of a positive attitude, disciplined goal setting and the desire to be the best while maintaining a strong work-life balance. Her knack for building relationships and her no-nonsense approach have gained her a great deal of respect in the community.

RE/MAX Alliance Agent Amanda DiVito Parle Receives Colorado Young Professional of the Year Award!

Amanda DiVito Parle, a thirty-year-old Platinum Club and Hall of Fame member with RE/MAX Alliance in Arvada, has been awarded the Colorado Young Professional of the Year Award by the Colorado Association of REALTORS®.

Each year, the Colorado Young Professionals Network (CYPN) rewards an individual with this top honor that has demonstrated leadership, conducted good business, while utilizing REALTOR® principals and has made a positive impact in the real estate community. The award is given to an individual that is under the age of 40 and is voted on by a committee made up of CYPN Advisory Board members and the previous year's recipient and the Colorado Association of Realtors (CAR) staff liaison.

Amanda is certainly not a first timer when it comes to receiving awards for her dedication and hard work. Earlier this year Amanda was awarded the Young Professionals (AYP) Leadership Award for her outstanding service and commitment to the Arvada Community.

In 2009, Amanda co-founded the Colorado Young Professionals Network (CYPN), a state chapter recognized by the National Association's of REALTORS. Since forming the chapter, there are now 38 Local REALTOR Associations across 6 districts participating in young professional networking activities. As the 2011 Chairperson for CYPN, Amanda played an intricate roll in establishing strong leadership across the state for this organization.

Amanda is a second generation REALTOR® who believes that serving the real estate community is as important as serving her clients. "I am a lively, high-energy personality and love this path I have chosen. I am very proud to be a REALTOR® and a RE/MAX Alliance agent," says Amanda. She is a highly educated Realtor with designations that include, ABR, CRS, CDPE, CLHMS, and SRES.

"I am very fortunate to be able to do what I love," said Amanda. "I feel like when you find a career that is your passion at a young age, it's easy to set your goals high and strive to be the best."

"We are privileged to have such professional and dedicated young agents like Amanda in our organization" said Chad Ochsner, Broker Owner of RE/MAX Alliance. "Amanda continues to strive and achieve, and we are proud of her well deserved recognition and her accomplishments in the community. Like many of our young agents, Amanda is proof that dedication and hard work lead to success."
